CoQ10

A patented fountain of youth for the cellular powerhouse!

The Anti-Aging & Energy Formula is revolutionary in its ability to enhance mitochondrial function and improve the efficiency of energy production in the body. This cutting-edge supplement was awarded a Government Patent on its merits and on the results of clinical tests.

There is extensive scientific support that mitochondrial function declines with age, starting as early as our 20's. A leading theory on aging, the mitochondrial clock theory, is based upon a gradual decline in mitochondrial function because of DNA damage from free radicals.

This patented product combines two mitochondrial metabolites and two mitochondrial respiratory chain precursors that enhance mitochondrial function. In animal and human studies, these metabolites increase mitochondrial functions, enhance energy production and counteract some of the biochemical reactions associated with aging.

Special Features:

Alpha lipoic acid, a key ingredient of this formula, serves to enhance mitochondrial function, support better hearing, and has been used as a therapeutic agent in liver and brain disorders.

Acetyl L-carnitine is a biological compound also found in the formula which stimulates antioxidant defenses.

Coenzyme Q10 and Glutathione are the other key ingredients that make this formula unique, helping to effectively battle free radicals on a cellular level. The ability to slow the process of aging on a cellular level is what sets this product apart from the rest and is the reason it has produced so many remarkable success stories.

Healthy vs. Unhealthy Mitochondria

Unhealthy cell becoming apoptotic; disintegrating as the mitochondria order the cell to self-destruct.

Vi-pak is shown to help improve mitochondrial health and may delay onset of apoptosis.*

Unprecedented support against devastating free radical attacks.

When you cut an apple, over time the flesh browns and decays. Free radicals can have a similar aging effect on your cells. The Supercharged Antioxidant is a potent blend of vitamins, antioxidants and minerals specifically designed to battle free radicals throughout your system.

Antioxidants help your body defend itself. But not all antioxidants are equal. Free radicals are damaging agents found in and created by our own bodies. Produced in the mitochondria of each cell, we each create seven trillion of these free radicals every second.

The Supercharged Antioxidant found in the Vi-pak® combines 26 robust ingredients with vitamins A, C and E, help your body combat the effects of free radicals, as well as even more potent antioxidants such as N-acetyl cysteine, Grape Seed, Green Tea and Pine Bark extracts. This is why our ingredient lab tests cannot be matched by other brands!

Special Features:

The herbs Ginseng and Ginkgo Biloba are excellent for maintaining general health and have the potential to enhance the sense of well-being and overall memory capacity.

N-acetyl Cysteine is a potent antioxidant and protects cells from the toxic effects of oxygen.

Grape Seed Extract is an outstanding antioxidant and has been shown to be 20 times more powerful than vitamin C and 50 times as powerful as vitamin E.
